

Keep myself together

Andrea Ocello

Once again
on the same path
but the world is not the same now...
Singing out loud my pain
Whispering my feelings back to me

Going back to where it started...
Looking at children playin',
people smiling
and lovers walkin' hand in hand
I know I left myself back there.

RIT

[I need to keep myself together
I need to set my soul free again
I need to get my life together
....it's time to go back and meet myself]

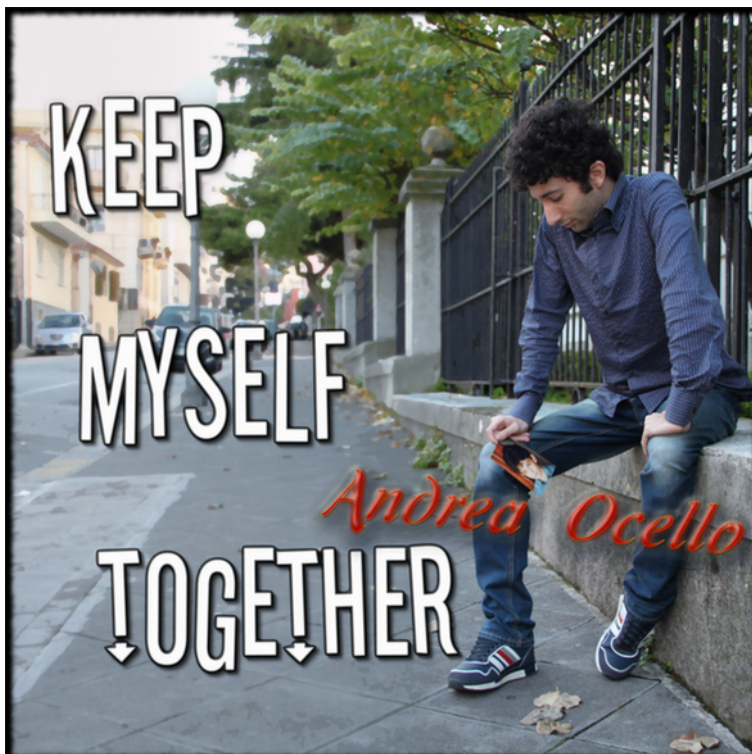

There she is in the street, so beautiful...
So many times I used to walk away...
Now I know, like a fool, I left her back there.
Stay close to me girl, so that I can make it.

RIT

[I need to keep myself together
I need to set my soul free again
I need to get my life together
....babe, help me to redeem myself]

RIT

[I need to keep myself together
I need to set my soul free again
I need to get my life together
...it's time to take back everything I've lost]
